Ok, Deb, let's deal with the pink and orange elephant in the room. (In other words, we're using a different metaphor 'cause pudding was grossing me out 🤢 ... and what does "proof is in the pudding" mean anyway? 🙄)

Message Artist Creative Group isn't the only company out there offering branding and content marketing ... or saying that we're really good at it and regularly knock it out of the park. ⚾ (We actually do, by the way.)

But we know you can't just take our word for it and that's why we have testimonials from our happy and super-satisfied clients. (And we didn't even have to get them a ride on an elephant ... pink, orange, or otherwise!)

Here is what just a couple of our clients have to say about working with my team and I ...

We exceeded expectations:

"Working with Deb and her team at Message Artist Creative Group was a true pleasure! I was thrilled when she and her writing team came back with compelling copy that exceeded my expectations. The best part: she did it in a way that was consistent with my tone and style. Thanks so much, Deb! You and your team truly delivered!"

~Shawnette Rochelle, Executive Coach

We increased business:

I knew my website was no longer attracting clients. I found Deb and she listened to me, heard my problem, and guided me to the solution by asking questions that had me thinking more strategically. She worked closely with my web designer, removing the burden of me having to explain content decisions. Simply put, Deb made a big project easier for me. I feel that the increase in my business is due to the copy Deb and team wrote for my website. I am so grateful.

~Laine Dougherty, ADHD Coach

These are just two happy clients. If you'd like to discover more of what clients say after working with us, head over here.

Cheers,

PS - Hit reply if you've noticed websites that contain copy that does NOT match the tone or visual brand ... and it's left you confused. Would love to hear about it.

PPS - If you know where "proof in the pudding" comes from, clue me in, will ya? 😊😂
